An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-6, drawn to a column, classified in class 210, subclass 198.2.
- II. Claims 7-14, drawn to a movable plate, classified in class 210, subclass 456.
- III. Claims 15-21, drawn to a process for forming a seal, classified in class 210, subclass 656.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it could use other plates. The subcombination has separate utility such as a filter.

Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus as claimed could be used to practice another and materially different process. For example, the apparatus could be used as a chemical or biochemical reactor in a chemical or biochemical reaction.

Art Unit: 1723

Inventions II and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus as claimed could be used to practice another and materially different process. For example, the apparatus could be used as a filter in a filtering process.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

During a telephone conversation with John Dana Hubbard on August 2, 2005 an election was made to prosecute the invention of I, claims 1-6. Claims 7-21 have been withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claims 7-21, drawn to non-elected inventions, have been cancelled.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with John Dana Hubbard on August 2, 2005.

Prior to the first line of the first page of the specification, the following has been inserted:

- - Reference to Related Applications

This application claims the benefit of U.S. Provisional Application No. 60/456,591, filed March 21, 2003. - - .

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Pelletier (U.S. Patent No. 6,139,732) and LePlang (U.S. Patent No. 5,141,635) are considered to be the closest art because they disclose similar apparatus. The case has been allowed because the claimed combination of elements would not have been obvious from Pelletier (U.S. Patent No. 6,139,732) and LePlang (U.S. Patent No. 5,141,635).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
